EC-DIVEIDER 996
2nd form

An announcement regarding the recent event
An unknown party has assaulted the Mihena Street Church during this morning's mass.
The three Sisters who attended the mass were killed by the culprits
We advise people passing through the streets of Mihena to stay on guard

The motives and numbers of the culprits are still unknown.
There will be checkpoints at various locations. We appreciate your co-operation.
Hm
They totally assume that Touma is the culprit

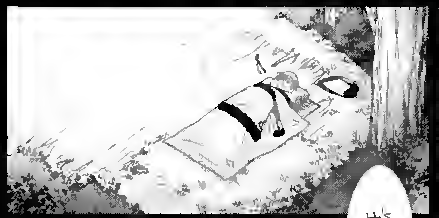
HIS CURRENT BODY TEMPERATURE IS 39.6 C.
BUT IT SEEMS HIS TEMPERATURE HAS STOPPED CLIMBING..

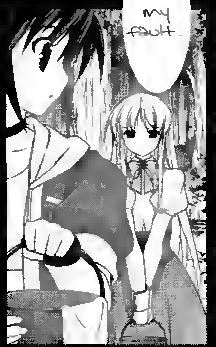
Touma?

Never mind.
Sorry... Somehow... my head...



Woah! Hot!
You've got a fever! Lily, take out the towel! The towel!

Why do you it's say your fault?



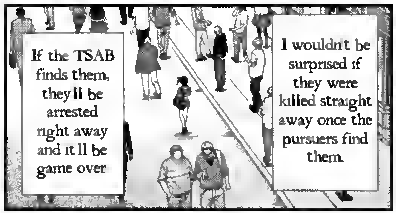
It's my fault

The people over at the facility said that

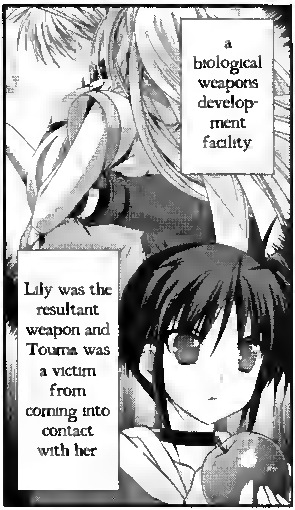
... that I am a "poison".
A poison that kills whoever I touch or get close to
Since Touma was fine after he came into contact with me,
I thought that statement was just a lie.
Don't be so negative, Lily! It's not like it's proven that you caused it!
Don't believe in what those suspicious people said, okay!?
I'm sure Touma would say the same thing.

Okay...
so stay by his side, okay?
I'll head into town to buy food and medicine,

First of all, the facility Lily was in is without doubt
Touma's condition, Lily's statement...



If the TSAB finds them, they'll be arrested right away and it'll be game over
I wouldn't be surprised if they were killed straight away once the pursuers find them.



a biological weapons development facility
Lily was the resultant weapon and Touma was a victim from coming into contact with her

I'll also get deported back to my home planet.
I guess it's a bit much risking my life for something without a guarantee.
I like sticking my head into interesting yet troublesome things, but

I have no obligation to stick around except for the interest.
I wonder if it's okay to say bye-bye at this point...
It might also be interesting to cover for them.
... Meh, whatever.
It's hard to make friends that are around my age.

Welcome back. It sure took a while, didn't it?
Shaddap. I went and did the re-supplying.
I see. Thanks for that.
News?
Some interesting news came in while you were out.
It seems that the special forces from the Bureau have moved out.

Seems like it's the re-construction of the team that defeated the Cradle six years ago
An extra force com-osed o- ace magicians from all three fields ground, air and marine Have they...

Doing such a useless thing again
.. come to crush us again?

After all, they should know the futility of coming after us.
So we're being chased down as a side event. Seems like we're getting looked down upon Even though I think they're prioritizing the security of the Divider, they should also have us as a target to arrest
Well, it's because they're restricted by the cage and boundary known as an "organiza-tion" ｸｲｸｲ ｽｼｯ

Above all, humans rely on mages for their fighting strength.
As long as we hold the Divider, they cannot lay a finger on us Huckebein.

You're still the only one in our group that doesn't have one
Speaking of Divider, we must find yours as soon as we can.
Start up
Not like I need it
I like this 928 more than any gun I've ever had A Divider on its own is an "exceptional weapon", but with a Reactor ..
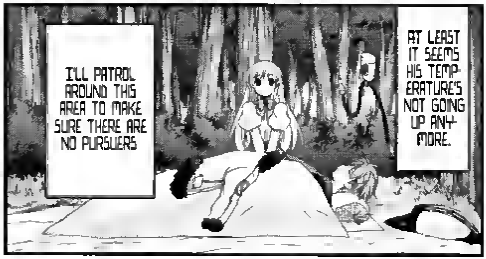
Well, well

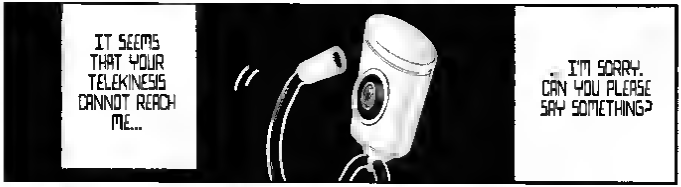
That's Karen's take on it
"It becomes a poison that can kill the world" was it?

I don't really have an interest in that
By the way, Karen aside, what happened to Cypha?
She took your place and landed on the ground.
Seems like she had something to confirm.

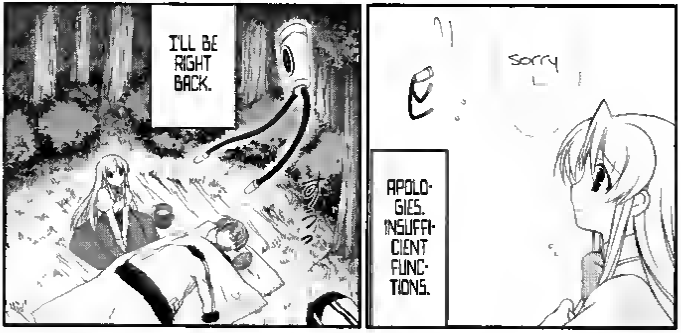


I'LL PATROL AROUND THIS AREA TO MAKE SURE THERE ARE NO PURSUERS
AT LEAST IT SEEMS HIS TEMPERATURE'S NOT GOING UP ANY MORE.

Sorry, Steed
Okay



IT SEEMS THAT YOUR TELEKINESIS CANNOT REACH ME...
I'M SORRY. CAN YOU PLEASE SAY SOMETHING?

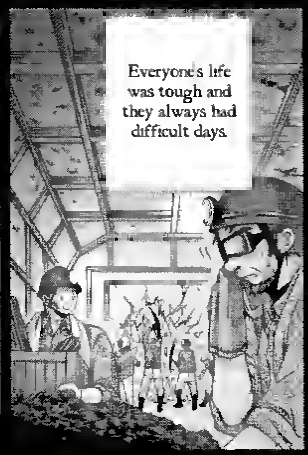


I'LL BE RIGHT BACK.
Sorry
APOLOGIES. INSUFFICIENT FUNCTIONS.

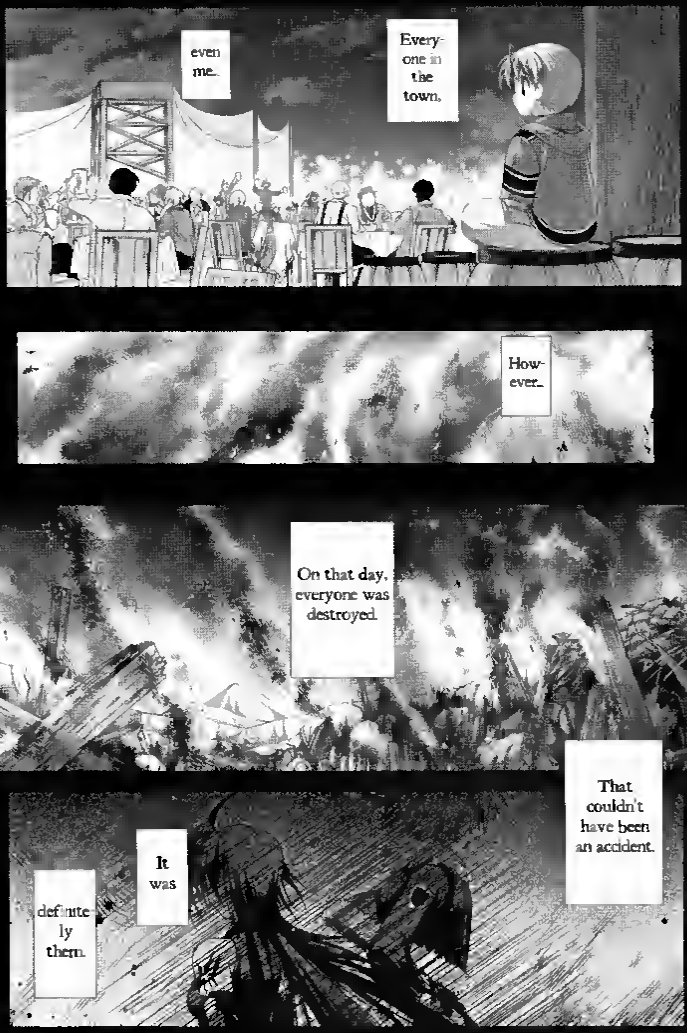
I don't remember much about the mining town.

Despite this, they continued living.

They were also full of smiles.



Everyone's life was tough and they always had difficult days.



even me...
Every-one in the town.
How-ever...
On that day, everyone was destroyed.
That couldn't have been an accident.
It was definite-ly them.

I was alone
and in order to take my vengeance when I'd find them someday,

I forced myself to get stronger.

However,
Su-chan extended her hands to me.

I received kindness
When I met big sisters like Tea-san and Aa-chan, and remembered my smile once again.
She told me, "Let's become a family once you move out of the facility".
They even continued to look out for me during the time I lived and studied in the facility in Vaizen.

I only wanted my journey to be a ritual to forget my past and to allow myself to lead a normal life.
Why did he appear?
I wanted to live a normal life.
The important thing that I discovered...
And yet...
Why do you seek to destroy it?

I will come to kill you.

Touma!?
Ah!
Gah!
Touma,
Touma!
Steed!
Isis!!
It's no good
It won't reach

Touma!
Gah!
Arrr-gh!!
Why can't my voice reach at such a time...
Let him be.

He is just becoming what an Eclipse Driver should be.

Eclipse Driver...?
Soon, you will become one with that boy.
Moral damage?
To forget your duty as a Reactor Plug...
Broken judgment function as well?
We require that boy.
I have no use for a damaged Plug... Back away

All of you! Freeze!
Drop your weapons and raise both of your hands!
It's Special Duty Section Six of the TSAB.
Arresting a culprit for possession of dangerous goods and committing acts of violence.

I have warned you not to move. If you take even one step,
I will cut you down regardless of who you are.
A mage... No, a knight?
Is that a fusion device with you?

Or is it that thorny guy from earlier? Are his buddies causing this commotion?

You're with the Hückebein, are you not?
This 944 is most certainly a Divider and I'm one of the founding members of the Hückebein Family.
Have you had some sort of connection with us?
The cultivation of the 14th Uninhabited World... Three months ago.

The people that you all slaughtered there...
67 civilians and 12 officers. Do you have any recollection?
Ahh, so something like that happened, too.

I've visited there once along with my subordinates
It was a peaceful, tranquil piece of land

They were gentle pioneers who had nothing.
Why were they subject to a massacre by you people?
It wasn't our original intent to carry out needless killing, but the need arose.
However, rejoice

I remember now.
I'm the one that killed.
The one who left no adult or children alive on that day at that place was, without a doubt, myself.

Far away.
From the mining town to the north.

Alone?
I'm also by myself for now.

There have been some sad events.
Did someone die?
.. Yes.

There was a huge fire... We all tried to save as many as we could,
You see, I was a firefighter...
The people I had to save... died.
but there were many more we weren't able to save.
Adults, children... Lots of them.
"I wanted to save them".
So you felt depressed?

That's why I'm training by myself out here.
If I train more, become faster and stronger
I'm sure I'll be able to save more people.
Because I want to help them; I want to lend a hand to the

An EC-infected person cannot return to normal.
Will you exterminate that kid and I, the poison of society?

Hey, it's 'bout time ya got yer ass up.
Oiiii! I told ya to wake up, ya damn baldy.
Uu Ohh.
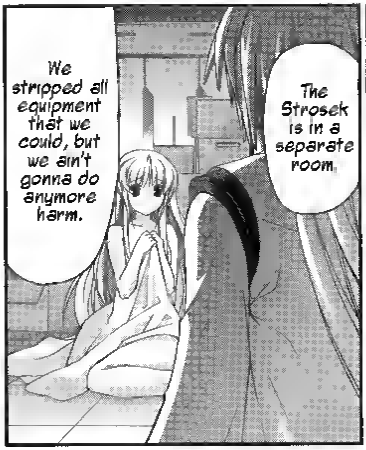
ばっ

Yo. How're ya feelin'?
I'll say this first.
I'm not strippin' 'n' tyin' ya up 'cause I like to do it.
!?

I judged ya to be the most dangerous outta the three
Ya sure had some disturbin' weapons in yer bag.
Well, I was the one who stripped ya though. No one would bother with yer body unless they needed to.
... Thanks for that.
Be at ease. Cheer up and do whatever ya like.
Now, I want to have a lil' chat with ya.
Useless questions are a pain, so I'll get ya to tell me things I'd wanna hear.



We stripped all equipment that we could, but we ain't gonna do anymore harm.
The Strosek is in a separate room.

The kiddo that was with ya is still asleep.

As long as you lot don't go berserk, we won't do anythin' to ya
We'll also return yer clothes and belongings if ya co-operate, okay?
.....

Was it that? Y'know, nutrients that don't go to the breasts go to the brain instead?
Great I don't mind those who talk back fast Leave them alone. I like my bust as it is ...An excellent answer
Is that an expression of "This degree of restraint is no big deal, but should I hear ya out for now?"

Ugh...
Ahh. Good morning, Touma.
What a perfect time for you to be up.
You had quite a headache, didn't you?
I know you don't feel too well, but please hang in there a little longer
Well, please take a sip of this.
Ugh...
I'm sure this will relieve you of your pain.

Where am I?
Who are you?
This is our headquarters.
We are members of the Huckebein family, hailed as criminals by the world.
I am Fortis and he is DeVille.
To make it easier for you, we are "Veyron's comrades".
Ahh, let me make this clear, Touma.
Right now, we are not your foe, nor do we carry a grudge.

The people you are searching for who destroyed your home do carry our mark.
but unfortunately I should say, we did not take part in such settlement extermination
Would you mind hearing us out just a bit?
Also, rather than the past, we must explain what is happening now to you.

Yeah..
Jeez. Your functions and memories really are damaged.

Uhm
What is this "React Plug"?
That youngster sure is half-assed, leaving a React Plug in this state..
Now, what should I do...?
Must I start by explaining what a Reactor is?
Jeez, we sure got ourselves a trouble-some thing

We only brought ya here since it woulda been bad if y'were important to that kiddo.
When ya get down to it, we don't really have any interest or business with ya
It's just... to make things simple,
There's too much to explain, so I'll pass on those details.
Why are you so interested in him?
You guys are a famous militia, are you not?
that kiddo may become part of our family

I did some investigation at Veyron's request. You did meet us at the scene.
ﾍﾟﾗﾘ…
You would have known with a bit more research. The extermination we carry out is different than what happened to your village.
However, it was not us who performed the razing and killing.
The reason being that you survived.
If we were to exterminate the settlement, we would have made sure not a single soul was left breathing.

You really are evil criminals
Didn't we introduce ourselves like that?
In order to survive ?
What do you mean by that?
Ah. Yeah, you still don't know
When there is a request or bounty involved, when weapons are drawn against us or when someone interferes with our goal.
when infected people such as us need to do so in order to survive, we will exterminate them without hesitation.

In order to maintain functional sanity and life, it is necessary that you continue killing.
An EC infected person cannot live without killing.

There's something weird to me.
Hand them both over.
With such fire and storms!?
Them before that...
You must have felt it as well. The abnormal killing intent and hatred harboured when the Divider is in your hand.
That is the strong impulse of destruction and massacre called forth by the Eclipse Virus.
If he has been infected with the same disease and possesses a physical pain painful enough to drive you to insanity will accompany it in a normal patient.

With the advancement of the infection,
No matter how you fight it, the only result will be the self-destruction of your own systems infected with the virus.
Have you seen something like this?
Ahh, you don't know about that either.

That was in the facility I rescued Lily from!
I think you have seen this...
Self-destruction is the result of your regeneration going out of control and becoming a simple lump of flesh.
You are already heavily infected.
Do you understand?

Not un-Reacting after loss of consciousness is proof of advanced infection
Especially for you, who is separated from your React Plug
It wouldn't be strange if symptoms of self-destruction occurred right now
All of us Hückebein are infected by the Eclipse
Now, we go onto the main subject

Correct. I love intelligent kids
You... know a way to suppress the virus?
However, we can move without the virus controlling our actions.
Why is that?
So, here is an offer.
!?
Would you care to join us?

You may resist with the mindset that murder is a crime.
However, you'll get used to it. We did too.
We'd feel more secure with more comrades and we can be of some use to help you obtain your goal.
You have many paths to choose from.
We will not force you to make one.

If you ever accept the Eclipse's Fate and come to us...
How-ever...

Our arms are wide open.
We are commercial organisms sharing the same Fate.

Are you following so far?
This is a Reactor
The infected can reach into their bodies and bring out the full potential of their Dividers
They come in many forms, but most of them are inorganic like this one in my hand
The series that takes the shape of organic lifeforms are called the "Strosek".
That's right. Your identification is Strosek 4th — it probably means you are the fourth one to be made.
Series ?

We are not clear on the details, but it appears that Stroseks are created with the ancient Belkan book, the "Silver Cross," as a reference
The Driver, the Divider and the Storage
Our aim is to achieve the correct connection and activation of these three units
I have a vague recollection of that I always failed and could not improve
So I might have been scrapped because I wasn't able Well, that's obvious
However, you see
Touma gave me his smile

We will be giving you some time, so please think it over.
Well, you must be confused from us overloading you with information.
If you try to escape or act violently... We would not allow it in various ways.
Currently, we do not have any intention of harming you or your friends
You are already the toxin that will taint the world, more so than you are an infected.
However, you'll be fighting against murderous impulses and self-destruction if you escape.
No one will be able to save you... Even if they are God.

We'll allow you to meet your friends later.
We'll bring the meal over when it's time.
Ahh. Also,
it's basically best if you give up on escaping.
It's hopeless for you, even if you bring your friends.
ゴォォォ

I wonder. He seemed like a reasonable kid to me.
Do you think he will follow us obediently?
At any rate..
The opponent is an XS class TSAB ship
There is currently a large aerial force closing in on us
It is suicide
to jump off our hideout — the Hückebein airship.
ゴォオ…

The identification code is "Wolfram".
ゴオオオ
The Hückebein's mobile base, the Hückebein airship, is also a type of EC weapon.
It has an unbelievable level of mobility and dual-transitional ability, as well as absurd armour that no form of on-board magical weaponry can pierce.
It is one reason they are regarded as invincible, but we won't always let them have their way!

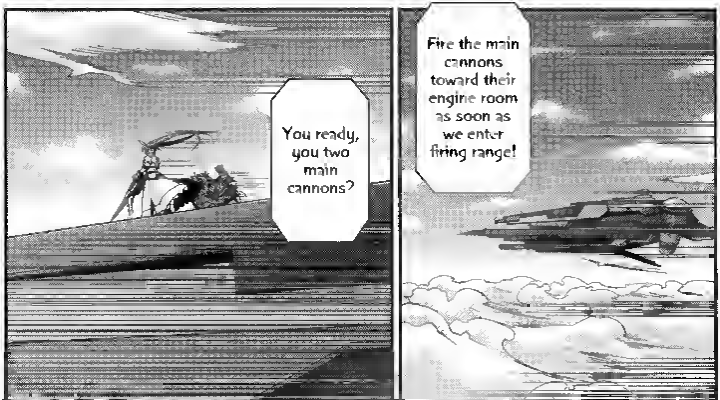
Skipper! If we let them escape, there may not be a next time
Roger!
I won't let you escape!
"Wolfram" Skipper Lucino Lowran



You ready, you two main cannons?
Fire the main cannons toward their engine room as soon as we enter firing range!

CHECK IT OUT, CHECK IT OUT, Yo!

AmpleForth, HAPPY BIRTHDAY. YOU'RE oLD.
Uhm, thanks to the person who gave me raws!
Don't recall seeing a name, but I don't think you would have wanted me to call out on you anyway. ^^;

Oh, Fate! Ville-mi!
Oh, Arf
The TSAB are doing useless things again
とてとてとて
Oh, Stella The great skipper is moving?
What did you mean by saying that I had to help prepare lunch for the guests?
Then telling me to get back to the scull since we're on alert?
"Just shake them off and hit them a little to send them home like usual", right?
Then let's get this over with quickly and have our lunch
Jeez, the TSAB sure doesn't have their timing down well
Sorry and thanks for that Muuu

Main cannons, Aggressor 1 and Aggressor 2
Augusto has been neutralized immediately before hitting
It had no effect
You guys should be in range soon Strike at their engine section
Roger
Attacking with the Strike Cannon!
Barrel Open.

ドドド

War-hammer! "Plasma Pile" mode!
Plasma Pile

Plasma Pile has hit! It went through the armour layer in the upper part of the ship!
Main Cannon team, continue the attack on the engine sections
Assault team, prepare to advance
Roger.

Subaru, are you okay?
Why?
You must be worried about Touma..
I am, but I'm fine.
Thank you, Erio. You shouldn't worry.
Okay...
Now let's go, Subaru, Erio.
We're heading in!
Roger!

Enemy contacted at the outer wall.
We have been invaded from the damaged point.
This is a bit...
Woah! These guys are awesome! It feels like they're in our stomachs!
I'll go
I'll crush them.
Ah then me too!
Please don't
The damage will only intensify if you run around swinging that Divider of yours

That's right.
Ville, Vey and I are more than enough.
If that's true, then that's great.
Hmph that's boring.
Disturbing my siesta How annoying!
I'll leave the interception to you three.
Aru, support them at the ship guns, and I'll go with Stella.
Got it!

Opening Engage Link
S-Quad Hückebein.
Engage.
Start Reaction.
Repairing damage to ship

They're also raising their speed!?
The damage has been repaired!?
Roger
We'll go after them until we're at our limit!
Aggressor 1 and 2, continue your attacks!
Only 40% left already? It's too soon for a proper engagement!
Huh...?
Battery Alert.
Even though the generator converter is scheduled to be installed...
CW's AEC equipment still has numerous problems for a field device.
Low Power Mode
Turn OFF the anti-recoil. Continue engagement at low power mode.

However, the only things that can currently stand up against the "Mage Slayers" are the AEC equipment and 5th Generation Terminal
The unstable rate of battery consumption and the size..
The 5th Generation Terminal and Bardiche have become the prototypes, but in the current situation with limited choice, be it inconvenient or whatever else,
Plasma Pile! One more shot!
There is no other equipment that can be used.
Plasma Pile

Yeah!
It looks like the outer armour we came in through has been completely repaired

Nothing to worry about. We'll just take control of this ship and get out!

That's some confidence you have Heck yeah!

We are the Riot Team of Special Section Six.
Drop your weapons and surrender.
Do you honestly think you can leave here alive after stepping into our main headquarters?

Next chapter comes out in Nyantype Vol. 11 (August 30th)!

ズズン
The attack isn't letting down...
What was it that Aru said with those outrageous mountains of hers?
Stay put for now.
If ya do, ya'll be safe.
...is what she said, but from the announcement, we're inside a moving airship.
ハテ
ハテ
If that's the case, it's possible we can get shot down.
Armour Jacket on!
It shouldn't count as "resisting" if I'm protecting myself and my friends, right?
ビキ!!!

Okay.
I've gotta find Touma and Lily first!

Sword Breaker!
Hahh!

I'll be taking your right arm.
Stop it.
SUBARU!

Hahah! Bring it on, civil servant!
Please stop. It hurts.

The desire to hurt others...
The power to destroy everything... is piercing my head...
Why is everyone... everyone... doing such terrible things...

to me and the things important to me?!
Everything that hurts...
Everything that gets in the way...
Fear, conflict, everything and everyone...

should just
Divide Zero
"Eclipse". disappear!

EMERGENCY
EME
What the... What happened?!
Control!! Situation report!
Communications! Someone answer!
Skipper Lucino!
AED operation
cough
cough... !!
R-Roger!
There are ones in cardiac arrest!! Confirm it and revive them! Hurry!

Lucino! Report?
Some form of energy has interfered with us!
Our engines have dropped down to 12%!
The Hückebein's engines have stalled.
Their movements are in chaos and they have started to descend!
It felt as if my life and magic had been completely drained away
Is this the "Zero Effect"?
Aggressor 1! Aggressor 2! What's the situation?
Aggressor 1 cannot offer firing support...!
Aggressor 2 cannot continue flying... Returning to base!

Stella... Stella!
Open your eyes! At this rate, the Hückebein will crash!
That's... I can't...
Even my Reactor was cancelled.
I've never experienced such a powerful Divide...
AED operation.

It's that kid.
Zero Driver...
The "jackpot" Curren searched for has been found in this form.

Touma is crying

Lily... Lily, hang in there!
Sis...

I beg of you.
Please save them.
Bureau member,
I have two people who need to be rescued here...
My body won't move... Neither my perception nor senses are functioning!
The top priority is to recover my sight... Faster, faster...!
